Anti – Plagiarism Policy

Preamble

As a "Golden Rule" one should always remember to give credit where credit is due in published materials.

The section 2 (k) of UGC Act 1956, define plagiarism as an act of academic dishonesty and a breach of ethics.

Promotion of Academic Integrity:

➢ Prevention of plagiarism in Higher Educational Institutions Regulations (2018) of UGC is followed in the campus.

Awareness on Plagiarism:

The R & D Cell of the institute periodically conduct seminars and workshop on plagiarism and create awareness among the Research Scholars and Faculty Members for the right conduct of research and academic activities.

Four levels of plagiarism is explained to the research scholars and are advised accordingly.

Technology – based Mechanism

To ensure plagiarism free documents during the final submission "Turnitin" software is approved in the campus.

Steps are taken to submit the soft copies of research thesis to INFLIBNET under the "Shodh Ganga – e – repository".
